

A Marriage

This is a deeply moving memoir of an unusual marriage lasting already a lifetime. In this realistic, intriguing and arresting account, this author takes us sensitively and perceptively on a journey of joy, mixed with some episodes of sorrow. It always emanates from a deep introspection and gives reflections of life's realities. The author's philosophical approach and the influence of Oriental Philosophy she has studied have enabled her to look more deeply into life and its outcomes than most of us have ever dared! The author describes her life as it ignites a young love to burn with a steady glow and mature into a loyal and supportive partnership over the years. We can, with enjoyment, appreciate each interlude taking the couple through more than 45 happy years spent together. A book to be treasured!
