

Sweet Blood & Fury

My story of developing diabetes at the age of eleven, within an alcoholic household and what occurred emotionally before my diagnosis and how my perception of the world changed. It's much about losing and then regaining my spirit (my father suicided when I was 22) through singing and speaking my truth. It includes my work in various environments as a Registered Nurse and has 5 interviews with people personally affected by diabetes. It also addresses the emotional impact of diabetes on an individual and the entire family system. $1 per book goes to diabetes research.
