

Christian Dior: The Man Who Made the World Look New

Christian Diors career, a veritable fairy tale, is set in a rich tapestry of Paris cultural life before, during, and after the war. Much of Diors daily inspiration emanated from the world of the intellectual and artistic elite, in which he moved with such people as Erik Satie, Francis Poulenc, Henry Sauguet, Jean Cocteau, and Raoul Dufy. Born at the end of an era in which luxury seemed reserved only for the happy few, Dior again revolutionized the world of fashion by introducing, in the early 1950s, ready-to-wear in his Dior Boutique. Until then, couturiers had worked essentially if not exclusively for the very rich and famous. With his boutique, Dior brought high fashion to the world at large. In celebration of the 50th anniversary of the New Look, New Yorks Metropolitan Museum mounted a major Dior retrospective in the winter of 1996-97. Translated from the French by Joanna Savill.
