

Explicit Notions of A Born Rebel

Patrice Fredrick Gibbs was born into an activist family of Black Nationalists and primarily educated by his politically spiritually radical Mother. Not always willing to participate in the family tradition of activism, Patrice didnt realize his ability to contribute to the family legacy until he was almost thirty years old. Once he found his niche, he knew there was no turning back. Here is the story of how he got there and the resulting notions Patrice was compelled to write about that were in his soul fighting to get out.
