

I Am Not A Number!: Freeing America From the ID State

Were already compelled to carry a government-assigned number to get health care, enroll our children in school, open a bank account, drive a car, hold a job, buy stocks, or even rent a video. We endure scans, warrantless searches, and inspections. Cameras peer at us everywhere. Rude and often ignorant security screeners pat us down at airports while we cower submissively. This book is for people who want to take steps, within their own lives and their communities, to ensure that the Surveillance Stops Here. As Wolfe writes, you cant have both freedom and a convenient, secure, go-along-to-get-along life. If you arent willing to take personal risks, dont read this book
