Have you ever wondered what it would be like to be a cop? Well, its time to find out. Follow Stan Otremba from his beginnings as a relief bailiff at the Los Angeles County Sheriffs Department in 1959. There, he hears the case of Johnny Stompanato, who turned up dead in his home one night. Stompanatos stepdaughter, Cheryl Crane, testifies that she killed him because he was beating her mother. But bailiff Otremba is suspicious, and years later, he finds out what really happened. When he becomes a full-fledged police officer with the Santa Maria Police Department, Otremba investigates murders, rapes, suicides, and more. As a deputy coroner, he sees still yet another side of the law, but its not a pretty one. Along the way, Otremba adapts to the changes in law enforcement, enjoying the new technology that becomes available from the Law Enforcement Assistance Program and fine-tuning his crime-fighting tactics.
