

Mousekatots: Toddler Travel Tips for Walt Disney World

Planning a Magical Vacation for Toddlers The best thing about a trip to Walt Disney World is bringing your toddler. But sometimes, the worst thing about a trip to Walt Disney World is...bringing your toddler. Unless you're prepared. With Tara Rack-Amber's Mousekatots, you'll learn how to get maximum magic, with minimum meltdowns. The crowds, heat, noise, and strange surroundings can overwhelm even the best-natured toddler at Walt Disney World. A miserable toddler leads to a miserable vacation for the whole family. To make sure you're not that family, Tara Rack-Amber suggests ways to turn your Disney vacation into a toddler-proof nirvana. From planning the trip and arranging for stress-free travel, to scheduling tear-free days in the parks, Mousekatots is full of practical advice. Plus, every major ride, show, and restaurant is reviewed from the perspective of a toddler. What a tween or a teen or an adult might enjoy is often not what a toddler will enjoy, and you'll learn how to avoid the terrors and tribulations that can afflict even the stoutest Mousekatot in the most magical place on earth. MAXIMUM MAGIC...MINIMUM MELTDOWNS!
