

Poet of the Caribbean - musings of a global peacemaker: a true story about rising from the ashes told in Poetry & Prose

Poet of the Caribbean musings of a global peacemaker By Mama Lizzie a true story about rising from the ashes told in Poetry & Prose darkness and light which took her on the journey of The Phoenix and resulted in the creation of a global peace initiative. Poet of the Caribbean was inspired by her second visit to St. Vincent & The Grenadines and her newly-given name Mama Lizzie. The book is designed to serve The Bigger Picture. Mama Lizzie, however, was compelled to write this book in which she shares her experience and passes on the teaching that she gleaned from enduring abuse, extreme loss, mental illness and the double-edged sword of her gifts. Told with unflinching honesty, vision and conviction, Poet of the Caribbean is a living testimony to her personal motto Be Original - Be Yourself and her signature poem Sexy Hymn - celebrating woman. commitment to the on-going path of self-realisation is clear and her work is rooted in psychological, spiritual and holistic understanding. role model of courage and forgiveness whom she met after sending him Dear Mr. Lomax a poem which conveys both her horrific experience of mind-control and a powerful message of individual and collective Mama Lizzies quest.
