Excerpt from Proceedings at the Twenty-Fourth Annual Lincoln Dinner of the Republican Club of the City of New York, 1910

The President of the Club, Mr. Robert C. Morris: I will ask the Rev. Charles E. Jefferson to invoke the divine blessing. Grace. Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Ruler of our nation, and of all nations of the earth: We bow our heads and hearts before Thee in acknowledgment of Thy great goodness to us, manifested in divers ways through all the years that have come and gone since we became a people. We praise Thee for the strong men and true, who, in the different generations, have honored Thee and faithfully served our country. We praise Thee for the life, the character and the labor of him whose memory brings us here this night, and we pray that as we think again of what he was, and what he did, something of his own lofty and magnanimous and beautiful spirit may take possession of us all. Bless, we pray Thee, our fellowship around these tables, and send us forth more loyal citizens of the Republic, more faithful servants of humanity and Thee. Amen.
