

Ribald Limericks and Rhymes

THIS BOOK CONTAINS sexual innuendoes, highly suggestive slang words and hilarious/absurd/bizarre human situations and activities. The original drawings highlight and compliment the ridiculous stories told in limericks and rhymes. The words and drawings are not offensive, but they are titillating and risque. Many age old questions are answered in these pages-such as: What were Robin Hood and Maid Marian really doing in Sherwood Forest? And did Little John get in on the action? What was Little Miss Muffet really doing on that tuffet? (Hint: It was X-rated.) Was Yankee Doodles Doodle really a dandy? (Oh, Yeah!) Sannie Patch was married for 30 years to an entrepreneur who owned strip mines in Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri. She was exposed to the miners humor when she was 15 years old and still remembers these limericks and rhymes they told her. The author has practiced daily transcendental meditation for 35 years. She lives in Tulsa, OK, where she teaches meditation, chanting and guided visualization. She is a life member of MENSA. Mica Hendricks was born ages ago into the traveling circus of military life, and has been fortunate enough to have seen a decent chunk of the world as a result.
