

Linda (A Short Story)

Book is a short story about the life of a woman who lived for about 35 years being misdiagnosed as retarded. Linda was born with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome, and the book speaks for itself, the hardships endured when people with disabilities are abused simply for not being born normal. - Ebook contain strong language, needed to expose the abuses endured by the subject. Society likes to soften up these situations with its purity and blind acceptance, when this book is written with its harsh language meant to shame society and its neglect to see the truth and as such, lack in changing these kinds of abuses. You can not soften up the mouths or language that goes on in reality or those hurt by it.
