

In Search For Justice

John Willsons life was consumed with serving the public for better or for worse in his search for Justice. He joined the Tasmanian Police Force as a part of the very first Police Cadet intake, Course 1 of 1971. A month turned 16 years not more than a baby he then served the public faithfully, as a Constable, for nearly 20 years performing his duties in many parts of Tasmania. Life should never be a bore with regrets. Always act in good faith with whatever you do and you will never go wrong. There is always light at the end of the tunnel even though that light may be a train heading towards you!!! This book consists of all true stories and only but a few of the total that John thought to be his best, are told.
