

Travel For Free (and stay for free, too!)

(This is the paperback edition of this book, with 320 pages, as its packed with information and contact names, emails and phone numbers). Do you want to travel and stay for free at the best places in the world - fly, cruise, stay, eat - all for free. As often as you wish? Can you take some pictures of where youve been? (And want to get $30 or more for each picture?). You dont need some really expensive camera - almost all of your pictures will be published online, so even your camera phone is perfect! Maybe youd like to write a few words (a dollar a word and up) or just put them on your blog? Raymond DuFoy shows you how to do all this and more, in his new book Travel For Free - and stay for free, too! Youll have seen his videos on international TV, probably read his words online and in the newspapers - and now he not only shows you how easy it is for you to travel the world and stay in comfort for free, he also spills the beans with the contents of his contacts book. He also shows you how to immediately get legitimate access to the secret twice monthly PDF bulletin which lists the latest hotels, resorts, airlines, even whole countries, all of whom want to pay for everything to get you to visit them! In this fun to read, yet fact-packed edition, Raymond takes you by the hand and shows you not only how easy it is to get to visit the greatest hotels, theme parks, cruise lines, resorts and spas in the world - but also how to get there for free by air - often in First / Business Class. Want to visit New York? St Lucia. Paris? The Maldives? Germany? England / Scotland? No problem! Just want a free tour around New York or San Francisco? No problem! Want to fly? No problem! 100s are listed. A cruise? OK. Cunard, Princess and many more are listed. An English Castle? No problem! China, a VIP pass for Florida, Broadway musicals, the only 5 star hotel on the main street in Paris? No problem!

Do you prefer to stay at an independent hotel, rather than a chain? No problem, theres over 200 in the book. Shakespeare Country, an African Safari, Jamaica, Antigua, Chicago, Australia, India? No problem! All of these - and many hundreds more - are listed with the name, private email and phone numbers of the person to contact. Why would these places want to do this? Every country, every hotel, every airline, every city has a massive marketing budget - budgets that are actually increased in times of recession. Advertising costs a fortune, especially on a national or international basis. But if you can set up a simple blog (for free - Raymond shows you how), can write a little about your experience, perhaps add a few pictures, youll never pay to stay and travel again. Now, this bit is important. You do not need to be some fluent, fully trained writer.

You write about what you see, what you do, in normal everyday words. This is because the resorts etc want honest, everyday language - as the public will trust it more - certainly more than any paid TV or Press advertising campaign. Theres another reason, too. You will add a link to the hotel, resort, airline etc in your writing - this counts as a backlink to the site - its a sort of vote, which Google and the other search engines love. This moves the place you stay with or travel with, higher up the listings on Google - which is good for them - and your real opinion is much more trusted than any advertising or travel website! But Raymond really reveals all - all the extras you can obtain (everything from free top of the range luggage to warm clothes (or swimsuits and sunglasses!). These are announced in the top secret twice-monthly, free, newsletter. So, whether you want just to travel on your annual holiday with your family or you want to do as Raymond does and explore the planet for one or two weeks every month, get his book right now - you could be travelling next week!
