

The Art of Learning: A Personal Journey Through the World of Education

Patrick Nuttgens had a remarkable academic career before moving into teaching and the educational administration in the UK. He played a key role in the founding of the University of York and went on to become director of Leeds Polytechnic until that institution adopted university status in 1992. That such achievements were in the face of the debilitating effects of polio make this not just a remarkable story but also an inspirational one.
